

WHAT'S DOING

IN ARCADIA THESE DAYS
INTERESTING LOCAL AFFAIRS

E. A. Thomas made a visit to Jacksonville last week.

FOR SALE: Fine cow and heifer. Apply to F. S. Gore.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick and son Harry left for Arkansas on Monday last.

Mrs. S. Rosin left for Chicago and her northern points Wednesday.

Dishong Bros. have sold their branch store to Chester Dishong and Wilje Gore.

Dr. C. H. Smith and sons, Rupert and Chesterfield and Mr. Rogers left Sat. for outing at Lake Stearn.

Misses Elsie and Jessie Franklin are farming young ladies from Bartow, sitting at Fred S. Gore's.

Miss L. E. Sharley has sold her property opposite the Chollar residence to R. E. Brown. Consideration $500.

T. Ed Child, of the Champion, paid short visit to Jacksonville last week, turning Monday night with his mother.

The Arcadia Mercantile Company have sold lots of goods since their cheap extension sale began. It lasts still a few days longer.

Professor Pace has been traveling in Soto county this week in the interest of the Ludden & Bates Southern Music house.

The editor of THE CHAMPION returned to Arcadia Monday night, after an absence of three weeks, spent in North Carolina and Jacksonville.

J. L. Dishong is off for a vacation. After spending two days in Atlanta he is gone to Knoxville, Tenn. where he expects to remain a month.

Mrs. Boydston, wife of Rev. Boydston, Presbyterian minister at Ft. Myers, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Friederice, of Arcadia, this week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Arcadia W. C. T. U. will be held in the Baptist church on next Wednesday, June 27, at 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. J. Fletcher Pace gives in this paper the program for her Musical Recital to be given at the Arcadia Opera House on Tuesday night, June 26th. Admission free.

Mr. L. M. Gunn and family have decided to move to Dade City to live and Arcadia will be sorry to lose these good people. Mr. Gunn left for his new home Tuesday.

Mrs. O. E. Webb left Friday afternoon to visit Mrs. Webb's mother at Wildwood, where she will spend about a month. Mr. Webb will also go up there next week.

C. M. Johnson is now city tax assessor. J. J. Singleton who never qualified. Mr. Johnson asks all owners of personal property to file a list of the same with him within the next few days.

Mr. Anderson, of W. R. Fuller & Co., Arkhale of Swift & Co. and Geo. M. Wright, of Dwindle & Wright, prominent traveling salesmen were in Arcadia yesterday. J. D. Jackson, manager of R. Fuller & Co., passed through the city enroute for Ft. Myers.

The people living on Champion Avenue are greatly pleased at the beginning made on their street by the city authorities who are having the streets paved. We hope the good work will continue until the bogy places are made good, the bridges repaired and our street made the equal of any other in our city.

The Everglade Minstrels are scheduled to appear at the Arcadia Opera House on next Tuesday night. It will be remembered that next Tuesday is Hangman's day in Arcadia. If you come in to see that go off you will feel so blue that you will want to go to the Minstrel Show so you can forget it all and go home happy. The company promises to make everybody forget their woes, so go and see and hear them. Tickets, 50, 35 and 25c.

The Public are to be given a treat and chance to buy the best bargains ever offered to shoppers in Arcadia on Sat., June 24th. Music by Pace's Orchestra from 11 to 11:30 a. m., from 4 to 5 p. m. and 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. and bargains all the time. Mr. Rosen, at the Boston Store, promises that Saturday he will give his best bargains, and that means a lot, for his bargains have revolutionized the dry goods business in Arcadia.

Wedding Bells.

The Tampa dailies this week announce the marriage in that city recently of Miss Edith Nash to Rev. J. E. McIntosh, of Arcadia. The newly wed pair have already arrived in Arcadia, where the Reverend gentleman has completed a cosy home, out near the orphanage. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh will be cordially welcomed to our midst.

On Wednesday night, June 20, at the home of the brides' parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Giles, of Arcadia, Miss Mary Giles was married to J. N. Carter. Only the immediate relatives of the family were present. A reception will be given in honor of the newly married pair tonight (Thursday) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horton. Miss Giles is a lovable little woman, a general favorite and Mr. Carter is considered a lucky man to win her. Mr. Carter is a successful business man of Arcadia worthy of the love of his bride. We wish them every joy in life.

Tampa Exposition Bill.

A telegram to the Tribune at 10:43 last night from Thomas J. L. Brown, Washington, stated that the Senate Committee had just agreed, unanimously to make a favorable report on the Tampa Exposition Bill, now pending in congress.

The bill has now been favorably reported by committees in both the house and the senate, and it is expected that it will be passed within the next few days.

Mr. Brown, Congressman Sparkman and Senators Taliaferro and Mallory have been busily working for the bill and its passage is now believed to be assured.

The bill provides that the President shall issue a proclamation announcing that an exposition will be held in Tampa in 1908, to celebrate the beginning of work on the Panama Canal, and that he shall also invite governors of Afraid of Strong Medicine.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. For sale by Ed Greene and all druggists.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan. writes, "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it." For coughs and colds it has no equal. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ed Greene.
